THE CASTOR BEAN CROP

RED CROSS ASKS CHILDREN TO ASSIST GROWERS IN HARVESTING IT

The Glendale Junior Red Cross has received from the Pacific Division Headquarters an urgent call to gather the castor bean crop which is ripening now throughout this district.

Miss White, teacher of agriculture in the Glendale schools, has suggested that Glendale children could profitably employ part of the present enforced vacation in harvesting this crop.

The castor beans are of two varieties, namely: cultivated and wild. Those who have planted and cared for the cultivated variety may be glad of assistance in gathering their crops, but it is, more particularly, those growing wild in waste places that are in danger of being lost unless gathered at once. Some of the wild beans pop open at maturity and some do not. Those which do not pop must be hulled. Those which do pop will be forcibly ejected from the hulls when ripe and it is very urgent that all "popper" beans be gathered in the immediate future before they pop, otherwise they will scatter all over the ground and it will be impossible to gather them.

After the beans are picked they must be cured in the shell by drying for at least three weeks before hulling, and as "popper" beans will pop in the process of drying, some provision must be made to prevent the beans from scattering.

Miss White asks the children to cure and hull the beans they have gathered, put them in paper sacks and keep them at home until their teachers ask for them.

WEDDING RECEPTION

The home of Mrs. E. B. Hall was the scene of a pretty social affair Monday afternoon, October 13, when Mrs. Hall entertained in honor of the marriage of Mrs. Emma Watkins to Henry Mull, which took place two weeks previous. Thirty guests were present to extend their congratulations to the happy bride and groom. Decorations of yellow chrysanthemums and smilax brightened the rooms where the guests assembled and where the delicious wedding dinner was served at 6 o'clock.

The bride has been making her home in Tropic for the past year with Mrs. Hall. Mr. Mull is the owner of a beautiful home in Los Angeles which he had all furnished and ready for the reception of his bride. The couple have many friends who wish them happiness.

ODD COINCIDENCE

In assigning order numbers to registrants in this district, Chairman Lanterman of the Exemption Board has observed a strange coincidence. In the original big registration list in this district, Order No. 1 went to the man who held Serial No. 258. This time, Order No. 258 went to the man who held Serial No. 1.

CHRISTMAS BOXES

ACTING CHAIRMAN O. SPENCER TELLS HOW RED CROSS WILL HANDLE ARMY PACKAGES

To the Glendale Evening News

The American Red Cross has undertaken the immense task of caring for and forwarding the Christmas packages sent to the American Expeditionary Forces, and the Glendale Chapter has agreed to do its part. In order to do this properly, everybody interested should strive to do their best and conform to the rules laid down by the head council of the American Red Cross in connection with the Government postal authorities.

Only one package can be sent to each soldier in Europe. To each man in service over there is being issued a label which will be sent by that man to a relative or friend in this country. A label of that kind when presented to the Red Cross Chapter in this district will entitle the holder to a box and printed instructions as to what can be sent.

The box is 3x4x9 inches and the limit of weight is 2 pounds and 15 ounces, including the wrapping. The box complete must not weigh more than three pounds. When your package is made up it is to be taken to the Red Cross Committee for inspection and final wrapping, and the sender must pay 4th class parcel post on it to Hoboken, N. J.

Packages for shipment will not be received under any consideration after November 20th.

O. SPENCER, Acting Vice-Chairman, Glendale Chapter, A. R. C.

AMERICAN RETREAT

FAILURE TO SUBSCRIBE LIBERTY LOAN MEANS JUST THAT SAYS H. P. GOODWIN

To the Glendale Evening News

Entire American Army Retreats! Pershing's Forces Turn Traitors and Are in Utter Rout—Great German Victory!

Such news as that would indeed be welcome in Berlin. But even such news would pale into insignificance alongside of a report in Berlin that America had fallen down on her Fourth Liberty Loan. That is something you and I can prevent.

While our noble sons and brothers are doing all in their power and, in many cases, giving their lives for Liberty and Justice, we, here at home are overlooking our opportunity and neglecting our plain and clear duty. This Bond Drive must be a success. It dare not fail of over-subscription. It will fail unless you and I do more.

German propaganda is hard at work in our country today and its results are being eagerly watched in Berlin by the master dupes and leading diplomatic tricksters of the Hun. Are we going to give Berlin such cause for joy as to allow it to defeat our Bond Drive? America's answer will be more than six billion strong if you and I will do our duty as we should.

Pause and think with me for one brief moment—then double your present bond investment. Get your honor button for your new subscription.

Let us assume that you have bought all of the bonds you feel you can take now. Let us assume that you have already doubled that investment and have heard the call and generously answered. Now one more assumption—assume that some All-Highest power should inform you now, while you are reading this paragraph, that unless you bought another $100.00 bond of this fourth issue before noon of tomorrow, you and your loved ones would be lined up and shot—what would your answer be? Could you meet the demand? I venture not one among us would fail. We would see the necessity and "come across."

Friends, that is the point I especially want to bring home. We could all buy more bonds if we really saw the need. It is a pressing need and a very present need. Are we blind to the situation, or are we being lulled into a false sense of security by this peace talk here while our boys are acting war in such a truly wonderful manner "over there"?

This six billion dollar fund must be raised—peace or no peace—it has been spent for our needs in this great struggle. It is an honor debt and must be met by us as such. This war is not over nor is the end yet in sight according to my views. If July of the coming year sees peace, that will be the first month of 1919 so to do. Now at this moment there is a reign of hell which we must stop with a rain of shell. Buy Bonds. Buy more Bonds and then borrow at the banks and buy again.

I thank the Evening News for the request to submit the foregoing.

Yours for a Victory Peace,
HENRY P. GOODWIN,
212 W. Garfield Ave.

TO ENFORCE ORDINANCE

Chief Herald of the Police Department states that complaints have been made to his office by the Health Officer and others in regard to expectorating on the sidewalks. There is an ordinance against it and the Chief has instructed the subordinate officers to co-operate with him in enforcing it. It is a filthy habit at any time, but when such an epidemic as prevails at the present time is raging, it is a serious menace to the public health. The Chief says if it isn't stopped some arrests will be made in the business district.

PATRIOTIC LADIES' AID

On account of the epidemic of influenza, the ladies of the Aid Society of the Christian Church will not meet on Thursday as they usually do. The members of this society have just purchased another $50 Liberty Bond, which brings their holdings up to $700, and sets an excellent example of patriotism.

LIBERTY LOAN WORKERS

Among the Liberty Loan solicitors who volunteered after the first list was made up and whose names were unintentionally omitted from the published lists are Mr. Van Why, Dr. R. V. Hogue and Mrs. Orton L. Early. Mrs. Early's husband is in the trenches and she has been among the most successful of the workers.

LARGEST APPROPRIATION IN HISTORY

HOUSE COMMITTEE REPORTS DEFICIENCY BILL CARRYING MORE THAN SIX BILLION DOLLARS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, October 16.—The House Appropriations committee this morning reported the Deficiency bill carrying $6,345,755,666.42, the largest deficiency bill in history. Six billion, one hundred twenty-two million is appropriated for the war department to finance the enlarged army program. The navy department is given $107,217,000.

The bill authorizes the president to create a commission to dispose of government property during the war and empowers the Shipping Board to acquire, build or improve any shipbuilding property or loan money to private shipbuilding enterprise, with the president's approval.

The bill brings the total appropriation of this Congress up to $36,000,000,000.

Among the largest items in the bill are $1,600,000,000 for army pay, transportation and sustenance; $1,093,000,000 for field artillery; $1,250,000,000 for field artillery ammunition; $28,000,000 for naval training camps; $55,000 for the California naval training station; $75,000,000 for allowances for soldiers' and sailors' families. It appropriates a quarter of a million to be used in providing work for enemy aliens on government farms.

AMERICANS HOLD HILL 299

GAIN IMPORTANT POSITION AFTER FIERCE HAND TO HAND CONFLICT WITH ENEMY YESTERDAY

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, October 16.—General Pershing reported in his communique today that the Americans are firmly holding Hill 299 after violent fighting in which the Hill changed hands three times yesterday.

"We have broken the Kriemhilde line at a new point where our men closed with the enemy in a series of hand to hand encounters in which we took prisoners," the communique said.

THREE DEATHS IN OAKLAND FIRE

CHILDREN ARE TRAPPED ON UPPER FLOOR OF HOTEL METROPOLE WHEN FIRE BREAKS OUT

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

OAKLAND, Cal., October 16.—Three lives are believed to have been lost in a fire which destroyed the Metropole hotel just before noon today. Two children are reported to have been trapped on an upper floor and burned to death. Mrs. E. Coole was rescued by firemen after she had dashed through a wall of flame. She is dying at the emergency hospital. The hotel was the oldest in Oakland. The fire started at 11 o'clock and by noon had spread to the Metropole annex and was not yet under control.

FRENCH ADVANCE CONTINUES

DRIVE FORWARD AT VITAL POINTS IN THE GERMAN LINE NORTH OF LAON AND IN THE CHAMPAGNE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

PARIS, October 16.—French forces are driving forward today at vital points of the German left flank north of Laon and in the Champagne region. The enemy is being pushed back in the difficult Ardennes country. The French fifth army is making progress near Mont Cornet and Vervins. Further to the right in the Champagne region Reims is being outflanked.

AMERICANS CAPTURE ST. JUVIN HEIGHTS

YANKES CUTTING OFF ENEMY'S AVENUE OF ESCAPE NEAR BUZANCY—FRENCH ADVANCE IN FLANDERS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

LONDON, October 16.—The Americans have captured St. Juvain heights east of Grandpre and are now advancing north beyond the heights. The German resistance around St. George is becoming more stubborn and heavy fighting is under way there. Buzancy is under American fire and the advance of the American forces is steadily narrowing Germany's avenue of escape.

In Flanders, French cavalry today continued to sweep toward the seacoast. One more line of communication with Germany's submarine bases has been cut by this advance.

$2,000,000 FIRE IN SEATTLE

GREAT NORTHERN OIL PIER IN FLAMES—ORIGIN OF FIRE IS YET UNDETERMINED

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

SEATTLE, October 16.—Fire starting at 11 o'clock last night swept the Great Northern oil pier and this morning continued burning desperately despite the efforts of firemen and a heavy rain. The loss is placed at $2,000,000. The cause of the fire has not been determined. Two Japanese liners narrowly escaped destruction when oil floating on the surface of the water began burning.

SERGEANT H. C. HENNING

ACKNOWLEDGES GLENDALE LETTERS AND SAYS HE LIKES SOUTHERN FRANCE

Somewhere in France,

Sept. 17th, 1918.

Dear Mother, Dad and Sis: I wrote you a letter the other day but I have a little pleasant news for you, so I am going to try my best to write another letter this week that will interest you and yet not encroach upon anything the censor has forbidden us to write about. Believe me it is some colossal task to write a newsworthy letter and not give the censor a chance to use his shears or eraser. First of all, the pleasant news. The other day I was made a musician, first class, and today I was made a sergeant.

I spent yesterday afternoon and evening in the town of Poitiers. I visited an old cathedral and it was a very interesting place. The altar fixtures and pulpits are very ornamental and very expensive and the church contains a vault under the altar where many dead are buried. There are many interesting places in the old town that I should like to visit, but our stay here is limited, so I will not have the opportunity. Our mail is coming in now in small lots, but so far I have not been among the lucky ones.

I must send my congratulations to Edna, for I am sure you will not receive this letter until after her birthday. Believe me, one of those packages of chocolates and tobacco that I used to receive in camp would look mighty good now. We are issued Duke's Mixture and Bull Durham by the government but that is not as good for pipe as P. A. or Velvet.

Well, dear folks, this must be my lucky day, for I just received your most welcome letter and also a long letter from the Elks of Glendale. I (Continued on Page 3)

THE "FLU"

Glendale physicians are disposed to discount the sensational statements which are current in this city to the effect that hundreds of residents are prostrated with Spanish influenza. They say that influenza, which we have every year, particularly at this season, has this year approached the type which prevailed in 1889-90 when it swept over the United States and was known as Russian gripe. At that time it was marked by great prostration which paved the way for other diseases and complications particularly pneumonia, and many deaths occurred. Dr. A. M. Duncan says there is an epidemic of colds which partake more or less of influenza, but that he has had thus far but six pronounced cases. He thinks hysterical fears have led to exaggerations. The disease travels, he says, at about the rate of transportation and cites the progress of Russian gripe, which started in that country, got to Berlin in September, to London in November, and to New York and other cities of the U. S. in December and January. This "flu" is practically identical with that, but is not of a very alarming character here, though it is well to take all reasonable precautions to avoid contagion or to stamp it out.

SERGT. EMERY GOES TO FRONT

In a letter received from Sergeant Owen C. Emery, dated September 15, he said: "I am starting for the front lines. I will keep you informed as much as possible. I am well and expect to remain so. Do not worry about me, for going to the front, if we do stay there, does not always mean action, and action does not mean getting hurt. It's got to be done sooner or later and the sooner the better. So keep well and wait for the next word from me."

FOR THE GOOD OF THE ORDER

Secretary Jackson of the Elks' Club reports that the Club House will be closed until further notice, except the office for the transaction of necessary business. It is closed by order of Health Officer Chase, who is not alarmed about the present epidemic of "flu," but does not want to leave any doors open for the spread and consequent prolongation of the prevailing complaint.

NO COMMUNITY SING

President Alexander Mitchell of the Community Sing organization states that no meeting will be held Thursday evening at the High School on account of the influenza epidemic.

WEATHER FORECAST—Fair except cloudy or foggy in the early morning near the coast. Northwest winds.

TRIBUTES OF RESPECT

MR. AND MRS. L. W. BALL RECEIVE BEAUTIFUL LETTERS FROM SON'S COMRADES

As announced yesterday, funeral services over the body of Clarence Ball, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Ball of this city, who passed away at Camp Colt, Pennsylvania, October 8th, will be held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. They will be private on account of the influenza epidemic, and will take place at the Pulliam Undertaking parlors.

Mr. and Mrs. Ball have been comforted in their great bereavement by the receipt of beautiful letters from their son's officers and comrades. They have kindly consented to the publication of the letters and they are given herewith:

Dear Mrs. Ball: We all unite in expressing our sympathy to the mother and family of one who was taken from our midst unexpectedly.

Although he was not killed on the battle field of France, his loss is felt just as much and he died just as much a hero as if he had given his life in action.

He has made the supreme sacrifice and you can be consoled by the thought that he gave his all for his country.

In writing this letter to you, words seem inadequate when we try to express our feelings. The death of your son has brought home to us the realization of war and what it really means to those who love us.

His excellent character combined with his desire and ability to get ahead were more than once made manifest to the officers of this company.

This afternoon at 5:30 p. m. the entire Battalion of which this company is a part stood at "Present Arms" for a period of two minutes in silent tribute to his memory.

In this hour of bereavement, know that the memory of your son will linger and be an inspiration to the members of this command.

Again extending to you our heartfelt sympathy, believe us to be,

Sincerely yours,

Paul B. Neville,
1st Lieut. T. C. U. S. A.
Representing the officers of Co. A, 337th Bn.

Camp Colt, Gettysburg, Pa.,
Oct. 9, 1918.

Dear Mrs. Ball:

In your hour of sorrow, we, the men of Company "A," Three Hundred Thirty-seventh Battalion, of which your son was a member, wish to extend our deepest sympathy and condolence.

During our brief association with Clarence, we found him to be a man in every respect, a brother to us all in our work, a man of high purpose, and inspired with great ambition to attain the highest honors. He was a true man among men.

In expression of our sympathy, we ask that we be permitted to offer an emblem for which he gave his all, the flag of our country, and a floral tribute as a token of our personal esteem.

We can only hope that the knowledge that Private Ball laid down his life for the great cause of humanity, may serve to lessen the burden of your grief.

Signed, CHESTER DELANCE DEAN,
Company "A," 337 Bn., Tank
Corps, U. S. A.

ISAAC C. NICHOLS

While touring California, Mr. Nichols, of Jamestown, N. Y., died suddenly at Saugus, October 15th.

Final funeral arrangements have not been made, but if possible some of the family will return east this week with the body, of which Scovern-Letton-Frey have charge.

LIBERTY LOAN $270,000

SUBSCRIPTIONS COME IN AS PATRIOTS REALIZE THE GREAT NEED

Good news comes from the secretaries at Liberty Loan Headquarters on Brand boulevard. They report subscriptions totalling $270,000 and the good work going right on. High School students are working. Boy Scouts are increasing their credits as bond salesmen, and the various captains and lieutenants are giving their districts a final going over. The time is getting short, but there is time enough for every patriot who wants to help in this hour of supreme need when every dollar is a bomb against the Kaiser and Prussian autocracy. The lack of money in hand need not deter any would-be investor as the banks stand ready to accommodate just such people and arrange payments to suit their convenience.

GLENDALE, CALIFORNIA, WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 16, 1918

OUR SOLVENCY—U. S. BONDS THE FINEST OF INVESTMENTS

Although the amount asked for by the government in the 4th Liberty Loan—$6,000,000,000—is the largest bond issue in history, the total issued by the U. S. will then be only about half that of Germany, and with resources at least three times as large as theirs. Germany's eighth loan last spring brought in $3,600,000,000, and their ninth is about due. Doubtless the Huns are pledging each series of bonds for the next, but the fact that they are buying them at all after what they have been through, shows the confidence they still have in their government.

As pointed out by Mr. Henry on Thursday evening, our bonded indebtedness in proportion to our total resources is even a bagatelle compared to that of our Allies and when, in considering this indebtedness, all of which is to our own people, we also look at the credit side of the account—viz: the loans to our Allies, we cannot fail to see how little the war is really costing us.

Our Liberty loans are in amount and interest rate, as follows:—The 1st, 2 billions, at 3½ per cent; the 2nd, 3 billions, at 4 per cent; the 3rd, 3 billions, at 4¼ per cent, and the 4th, 6 billions, at 4¼ per cent. Total, 14 billions—all convertible to 4¼ per cent, if desired.

Our loans to our Allies now stand as follows:—Great Britain, 3,745 millions; France, 2,065 millions; Italy, 760 millions; Russia, 325 millions; Belgium, $154,250,000; Greece, 15,790,000; Cuba, 15 millions; Serbia, 12 millions; Liberia, 5 millions. Total $7,097,040,000.

When to these facts consideration is given to the amounts the government is putting into permanent things such as our merchant marine, it becomes self-evident that in the competition for trade which is bound to come after the war, the other great nations of the world will be sadly handicapped as compared to ourselves. This being true we can be nothing but optimistic as to the future of our country and as to the value of the bonds which we are buying. But we MUST come through with these bonds. No matter whether the war ends now or drags along for a year, our government says we MUST have this money. If people in cities like Los Angeles are falling down in their subscriptions it is up to us in the smaller communities to make up the deficit by doubling or trebling our quotas. We can do it and we will be all the better off in days to come because we will not only be the holders of the best securities on earth, which we can use for collateral in time of stress, if need be, but we can invest in them with 60 cent dollars, on present bases of values and will mature them with 100 cent dollars, besides having received a splendid rate of interest. There are plenty of people in Glendale who could buy many more bonds if they would—either with cash or credit. DON'T you see that you OUGHT to do it and that you will always be glad you did?

W. B. KIRK, Publicity Chairman.

TO THE MEADOW LARK

By F. Lee Chauvan

There's a note in thy voice, my Meadow Lark,
That comes from thy spirit to mine;
I feel it touch the key of my being
In a chord of pathos divine.

In thy pathos of song is a meaning
That makes me in union with thee,
An exile on the shores of the mortal,
'Tis thy spirit's sigh to be free.

When in the pale light of my evening,
I look faintly into the west,
Wilt thou come to the sill of my window
And sing sweetly my soul to rest?

Thou wilt know me by the rose and lily,
And the violet o'er my heart;
It will feel in the glow of their beauty
The pure of the balm they impart.

Then sing to me of God, my Meadow Lark,
Sing of God, His justice and love;
All the notes of my soul will blend with thine,
With response from the Choir above.

1315 S. Glendale Ave., Tropico Dist.

WHAT DID YOU?

When the war has been won,
When our duty is done,
When our sailors come sailing the foam;
When our men of the air
And the guns over there
All the nation is welcoming home;
They come to your door,
The young winners of war,
They will look you up, over and through,
And in word, or in thought,
They will ask, like as not:
"Well, we did quite a lot—
What did you?"

When the years have gone by,
And the pages are dry—
That the story of struggle record;
With democracy sure
When we're living secure
In the strength of our soul and your sword—
In that glorious time
To your knee there will climb,
And will say, "Some were brave
On the land and the wave,
Some their ev'rything gave—
What did you?"

Or, it may be at night
You will sit by the light
Of a fire in a home that is free.
You will sit all alone
Neath a roof of your own
In some year of the future to be,
And a voice down inside
Will say, "Some of them died,
Or they suffered their duty to do,
And the ones who could not Give their all, gave a lot,
Gave their money—say, what,
What did you?"

winter with her grandmother in Brit-all sorts of accomplishments. She has learned to row, ride horseback and to swim, and is now looking forward to snow and the winter sports.

It is her first experience in a northern latitude and she is enjoying it immensely.

MOURNS LOSS OF EGYPTIAN RING

Mrs. C. W. Houston of 440 Myrtle street, who was robbed in the raid by burglars last week, can not be comforted for the loss of a ring which was the most precious to her of all her jewels and valued by her at $2000, though it has small intrinsic value. She acquired it in Egypt. It is said to be a relic from one of the tombs of kings and bears Egyptian hieroglyphics, carrying also the Scar-abaeus design, symbol of the Sun God Chepera, and also symbol of the Resurrection. It is of course impossible for her to replace it. She is faintly cherishing the impossible hope that the burglar will relent when he discovers its slight intrinsic worth and will restore it to her.

CLUB CALENDARS DISARRANGED

Mattison B. Jones and family escaped to their beach home at Hermosa Saturday and did not return until Tuesday. Mrs. Jones would be having a good rest now, as the long program of club functions which she was scheduled to attend have been called off on account of "flu," but she is determined to improve the time any way and is in the midst of an old-fashioned housecleaning.

The meeting of the Club Presidents' Council, which is attended by delegates from five counties, which was to have been held this week, has been postponed and will not take place until the fourth Thursday of October, when it is expected the embargo will be over. If present plans are carried out, it will be a legislative day open to all club women and to men as well, who are urged to attend as the constitutional amendments to be voted upon in November will be the subject and they will be debated pro and con by the most able speakers who can be secured. Mrs. Frankel, District Chairman of Music, will provide a fine leader for the community singing which will be a feature of the program.

SWEET POTATOES

MRS. J. W. DURHAM TELLS HOW TO CURE CROP AND MAKE IT
KEEP ALL WINTER

Mr. and Mrs. James W. Durham of 611 Elk street are harvesting a crop of sweet potatoes which they expect to keep and enjoy from now to next spring. Mrs. Durham says there is quite a secret in curing sweet potatoes so they will keep and as she and her husband have a method which they have thoroughly tested, she has kindly consented to give it publicity
through the columns of the Evening News so that others who have grown these toothsome tubers may have the benefit and conserve food which is getting to be so precious.

Her instructions are to dry the potatoes thoroughly by spreading them out on boards or bins exposed to the air and sunshine, covering them at night with blankets or sacks to keep off the fog damp, turning frequently for eight or ten days, when they should be cured enough to put away
in boxes in a dry place.

Mrs. Dunham declares that this drying out not only preserves them against decay but makes them much sweeter.

SERGEANT H. G. HENNING

can truthfully say a long letter for it was written on a piece of paper two inches wide and about two yards long. I sure appreciate the letters.
Here's hoping they may come real often. Your letter took just about one month to reach me and considering the immense amount of mail
being sent across, I call that mighty good time. Please let me know how long it takes my mail to reach you.
I have moved since I wrote you last.
We are at present billeted in a little town in a very pretty part of France with a climate much like that of Southern California. There is a small lake about half a mile from our quarters and I just returned from there about a half hour ago. The water is very cold but a fellow sure feels great after taking a dip. I know I am going to like this place very much.

The people here are very fond of music and tonight we are going to put on a little band concert for them.
I have located a piano and consider myself lucky, for pianos are not as plentiful here as in the U. S. A. I have not received the papers yet, but newspapers always travel slower, so I am in hopes of getting them in the near future. I will let you know when I receive them.

We have lost one of our men through disease. Perhaps you will remember the young man I brought home to dinner. He died Friday the thirteenth of Bright's Disease. So you see the Huns are not the only ones we have to fight. I am still in the best of health and I am going to keep that way, with the help of God.

I am going to number all my letters from now on. This is the third letter I have written since I arrived in France. By numbering the letters you will be able to tell whether you receive all of them. Well, dear folks, I will have to bring this letter to a close as it is time for the band concert.

Please remember me to all my friends and thank Carl for his kind opinion of what my future ought to be.

Lots of love to mother, dad and sis, from HERBERT.

J. C. CRAMER

At his residence in Burbank, J. C.
Cramer died October 14th, 1918, in his eighty-fourth year. He was a native of New York, but passed the greater part of his long and useful life in Salem, Illinois, where he was engaged in the banking business. Several months ago he purchased valuable property in Burbank and identified himself with that community.
Services are being held at the Cramer
residence in that city this afternoon, October 16th, at 1:30 o'clock. The body will then be taken to a mausoleum in Whittier to be held until it is sent east. Scovern, Letton & Frey of this city will be in charge.

RUTH M. SAUTER

At her home, 213 North Isabel, Ruth M. Sauter, wife of Walter Sauter, died October 15th at the age of twenty-five years, leaving besides her husband, a mother and an infant son to mourn her loss. She was a native of St. Louis, Missouri. Interment will take place at Forest Lawn Memorial Park this afternoon, October 16th, at 2 o'clock, the services, at which Rev. James O'Neill will officiate, being held at the grave, with

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, A CALL TO PRAYER

This evening being the regular prayer meeting night, it is befitting that all true believers in the power of prayer, should observe this regular hour, or as much of it as may seem best for a devotional hour in the home which will be in keeping with the needs of the hour. We should all pray for speedy relief from the epidemic which is now sweeping over the entire country, especially in our military camps. May it please Almighty God in harmony with His Holy will to bring a speedy relief.

Prayer should also be offered for the sick, and if any in our midst are called to leave this world they may be prepared to meet their God with joy and not with grief.

Earnest and continued prayer
should be offered to the God of all nations that there may soon come a peace which shall make for true righteousness and liberty for all mankind, especially for those who are now oppressed under the iron heel of autocracy. Our prayers should be for a victory so complete that the world shall be compelled to recognize the hand of our God in it, as we are now beginning to see, and for which all should thank Him.

Prayer for our great President and all his advisers, for all our soldiers and sailors who are fighting for the common cause.

Prayer for an overwhelming success of the Fourth Liberty Loan.
Never such a time for earnest,
prayerful endeavor as now.

Glendale's Fourth Liberty Loan Subscription Going Over the Top

KEEP IT GOING

Glendale has subscribed $198,000, her quota for the Fourth Liberty Loan---and the cry is for those who have not subscribed to do so before the drive closes on the 19th instant.

Let us proclaim to the world that we are backing the boys at the front with dollars and cents, and that Germany's peace proposal has no restraint on our pocket books when it comes to buying war bonds.

Dollars That Fight

By SENATOR HENRY CABOT LODGE

The war will be won by men and ships, by guns and airplanes. To raise armies and supply them, to build the navy and support it, and to furnish ships and transport, we must have money in large amounts. The expenditures of the Government for the ensuing year are estimated at $24,000,000,000, a sum which baffles the imagination to conceive. That vast amount must come one-third from taxes and two-thirds from loans. The success of the Fourth Loan, like those that preceded it, is, therefore, absolutely necessary. We must work with the highest, as if the war was to end in six months. We must prepare in every direction, as if it was to last for years. Speed and preparation are both expensive.

Without the Loans We Cannot Have Either

We are fighting to secure a just, righteous and lasting peace. For a complete peace we must have a complete victory. It must not be a peace of bargain or negotiation. No peace which satisfies Germany can ever satisfy us. No peace that leaves Germany in a position to renew the war against us will be worth having. It will be far from sufficient to gain all our objects on the Western front—Belgium, Alsace-Lorraine, Italia Irredenta. The President with wisdom and foresight and great force expressed his determination to redeem Russia.

Russia must not be left in Germany's hands. That would mean another war. Poland must be free. Slav republics must be established to bar the way between Germany and the East. Serbia and Roumania must be redeemed. All these things are essential. Nothing will bring them but complete victory and a peace dictated by us and our allies. It is a conflict of ideas. It is the principle of evil arrayed against the principle of good. It is the battle of freedom and civilization against barbarism and tyranny. We must win and we shall win.
